HOME DESCRIPTION

The Bradley Craftsman is an award-winning home plan by Robuck Homes and is a favorite in Baylee Ridge. Designed as a ranch and upgraded with a finished upstairs, you get the benefits of main-level living including the primary suite and two additional bedrooms, two full bathrooms, a powder room, an open living room-kitchen-dining area, a large walk-in pantry, laundry room, and a spacious flex room with French doors, perfect for a home office or a formal dining space! With the finished upstairs, you can also enjoy a large bonus room, a fourth bedroom and third full bathroom. The 9 ft. ceilings throughout enhance the size of this home. Oversized sliding doors in the living room lead out to the covered back porch, and along with the tall windows across the back of the home, there is an abundance of natural light and a great view of the partially wooded backyard. The spacious kitchen features lots of cabinets with soft-close doors and drawers, beautiful quartz countertops, stainless appliances and a huge kitchen island that overlooks the living room. Need extra garage space? No problem! This home includes a 3rd-car garage with an outside service door for convenient access. This home is expected to be completed and ready to occupy in Spring 2026. Photos included here are for illustration purposes only. Located just a short distance from Flowers Plantation, there is shopping, dining, healthcare, and other amenities including the East Triangle YMCA, etc.
